About The Program:

Researchers Day is an annual showcase for the research and practice conducted by students working with faculty mentors in Department ME. Undergraduate and graduate students, as well as researchers, are invited to present their work to the faculty, staff, peers, and the broader community.

The Department of Mechanical Engineering will host its annual Research Day on Saturday, May 13, 2023, from 9AM to 5PM in the Drawing Hall and Seminar Hall.

Topics to be conducted:

- Oral Presentation (PPT): Oral presentations provide a forum in which authors can present research results to a large audience of peers.
- Poster Presentation: Poster presentations are an effective forum for the exchange of information and a means to communicate research.
- My favourite frontier: Students can create an A4 document with a bibliography and a list of inventions of the favourite frontier.

Schedule:

Oral Presentation- 9.00 PM to 12.00 PM Venue: Seminar Hall
